Day 1

Dwarika's Hotel, Kathmandu

Kathmandu

Nepal's capital city serves as the departure point for treks into the Himalayas, including Mount Everest and Annapurna, and as a result, it is a major travel and tourism hub. Besides its proximity to these world-class hiking trails, the city also features many charms of its own, including an exquisite setting amidst snow-covered mountain peaks, friendly locals, several UNESCO World Heritage Sites and a series of ornate stone temples dating back hundreds of years. Don't miss a visit to the sacred Boudhanath Stupa, the ancient tree-swathed site of Swayambhunath, or Kathmandu Durbar Square with its 12th-century temples.

Day Itinerary

ARRIVE KATHMANDU

It is a panoramic thrill flying into Kathmandu on a clear day. The views of snow-capped mountain peaks sprawling down below you are almost ecstatic, beginning a whole chain of memorable experiences that stay with you for a long, long time. A representative and driver will meet you at the airport and escort you to your designated hotel. The representative will help you check into hotel. At the hotel you will be briefed about your daily activities.

Day 3

Meghali Serai, Chitwan National Park

Chitwan National Park

Set in the Terai Lowlands of south-central Nepal, the Chitwan National Park is known for its extraordinary biodiversity. This impressive UNESCO World Heritage Site is characterised by lush forests, grasslands, rich floodplains, rolling hills, beautiful rivers, and ox-bow lakes. The park is one of Nepal's most celebrated nature reserves as it serves as one of the world's last refuges of the Bengal tiger and the one-horned Asiatic rhinoceros. There are also deer, monkeys, leopards, Indian elephants, crocodiles, sloth bears, and over 500 species of bird inhabiting this spectacularly scenic expanse of protected wilderness. Don't miss the chance to explore the northern reaches of the Rapti River in a traditional dugout canoe, or to visit the Balmiki Ashram, which is a popular Hindu pilgrimage site.

Day Itinerary

DRIVE TO CHITWAN (167KMS/APPROX. 5-6 HRS).

After breakfast at the hotel, drive to Chitwan (approx. 5–6 hours), located in the lush Terai region of southern Nepal. Known for its rich wildlife and tropical landscapes, Chitwan offers a completely different experience from Nepal's Himalayan region.

The Royal Chitwan National Park, established in 1973, is famous for its diverse flora and fauna, including rare wildlife species and beautiful jungle surroundings.

Upon arrival at Meghauri Serai – A Taj Safari Lodge, complete the check-in formalities and enjoy a warm welcome. Later, meet the expert naturalist and proceed for lunch at the Badaghar Restaurant.

In the evening, enjoy a relaxing boat safari on the Rapti River where you may spot crocodiles, exotic birds, and, with some luck, the majestic Bengal tiger. This safari offers a wonderful introduction to the wildlife of Chitwan National Park.

Later, enjoy dinner amidst the serene natural surroundings and relax under the starry sky.

Overnight stay at Meghauri Serai.

Overnight: Meghauri Serai

Perched on the edge of the Rapti river and the world famous Chitwan National Park, the riverside villas and river view rooms invites one to a serene getaway that offers wildlife encounters and where the nights are full of carefully planned surprises. The property offers 16 luxury villas drenched in pastel hues, create a calming sanctuary in the heart of the jungle. Each luxury villa features spacious living areas with great views of the Rapti river and the National Park. With private plunge pools in every suite and luxurious 5 fixture bathrooms adorned with traditional Nepalese stone spouts, be tempted to relax the afternoon away by listening to the rhythm of the flowing river. Facilities and services include a dining room, bar, lounge, viewing deck dining, in-room or private pool dining as well as an organic garden.

Day 5

Dorje's Resort & Spa, Pokhara

Pokhara

The second-largest city in Nepal, Pokhara sits on the shores of Phewa Lake in the central region of the country. Often called the 'Adventure and Leisure Capital of Nepal', and known as the gateway to the Annapurna Circuit, Pokhara is a popular hub offering plenty to see and do. The range of activities on offer is impressive, with lakes and waterfalls to admire; yoga, reiki, and meditation classes to attend; caves (such as Mahendra) to explore; boating, canoeing, and whitewater rafting on the waterways surrounding the Lake to enjoy; and a number of challenging hikes to test your fitness (the viewpoint of Sarangkot is particularly rewarding). Meanwhile, serious trekkers can access the Annapurna Base Camp from Pokhara, the first stop for a number of stunning trails through the spectacular mountain range.

Day Itinerary

DRIVE TO POKHARA (168KM/5-6 HRS)

Begin your morning with breakfast at Badaghar Restaurant amidst the peaceful riverside surroundings of Meghauri Serai. After breakfast, check out from the lodge and drive to Pokhara, one of Nepal's most scenic destinations.

Upon arrival in Pokhara, check in at the hotel and relax. Nestled amidst lush valleys, emerald lakes, and breathtaking Himalayan peaks, Pokhara is renowned for its natural beauty and tranquil atmosphere. The city offers stunning panoramic views of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri ranges along with a refreshing tropical charm.

In the evening, enjoy a relaxing boat ride on the beautiful Phewa Lake, the second-largest lake in Nepal. Surrounded by picturesque hills, vibrant lakeside cafes, and stunning mountain reflections, the lake offers a peaceful and memorable experience. During the ride, enjoy magnificent views of Mt. Machhapuchhre (Fishtail Peak) and the surrounding Himalayan ranges.

After the boat ride, return to the hotel or enjoy free time exploring the lively Lakeside area on your own.

Dinner & Overnight stay at the hotel.

Overnight: Dorje's Resort & Spa

Dorje's Resort & Spa is nestled amidst the breathtaking natural beauty of Pokhara. The resort provides a selection of rooms and suites with air conditioning, cable TV and coffee/tea makers.
